Welcoming of Delegates attending the International Youth Exchange Programme

Mthatha: Nelson Mandela Museum invites Media Houses to the official welcoming ceremony of the International Youth Exchange Camp at the Nelson Mandela Youth and Heritage Centre in Qunu on the 02nd April 2025 from 16h00 – 18h00.

The Nelson Mandela Museum is hosting the International Youth Camp, which forms part of an exchange programme between the Nelson Mandela Museum and Anne Frank House in Germany. This programme, which dates back to 2008, aims to foster cultural exchange and understanding between our two nations, both of which share a complex and intertwined history.

The official welcoming ceremony will be led by the Eastern Cape MEC of the Department of Sport, Recreation, Arts and Culture, Honourable. Sibulele Ngongo. The Nelson Mandela Museum Chairperson, Dr. Siphe Potelwa, Acting Director General for the Department of Sport, Arts and Culture, Dr. Cynthia Khumalo, Activist for Social Justice, Prof. Peggy Luswazi and the Eastern Cape Legislature, represented by Mr. Mlibo Qoboshiyana, will also grace the event.

Media attendance will be appreciated. For interviews, do not hesitate to contact Ms.
